THE WINNER

A POEM BY GEORGIA HEARD

1 Evenings,
we play ball
next to the creek
in our neighbour's field.

2 We run so fast

3 I can't

4 even

5 catch

6 my breath.

THE WINNER

A POEM BY GEORGIA HEARD

1 When blue dark turns to black,

2 cold grass aches our feet,

3 trees creep close—

4 game's over.

5 Night wins!
